

The background features a collage of images: a white dove in flight, a newspaper clipping with the word 'The' visible, and a close-up of a person's face. A dark, hand-drawn style border frames the central text.

Thank you for your interest in our sermon study. We are currently in our annual spiritual growth campaign. This year, we are preaching and discussing Frances Chan's book titled, "Forgotten God," which has questions for deeper conversations for small group or individual study.
